Your resources...

We have a wide range of resources for you to use and borrow — books, DVDs, journals and newspapers.

Online resources, such as intute are available 24/7.

The screenshot shows the intute website. At the top, the logo says "intute" with the tagline "Helping you find the best websites for study and research". Below the logo is a navigation menu with links: Home, Web resources, Internet training, All services, Support for..., About us, Feedback. The main content area shows a breadcrumb trail: Home > Web resources > Humanities > English > English for speakers of other languages (ESOL). Below this, the title "English for speakers of other languages (ESOL) 1 - 13 of 13 records" is displayed. A search filter box contains fields for "Filter by keyword", "Filter by type" (set to "All resource types [current filter]"), and "Filter by period" (set to "All periods [current filter]"). There are "Search", "Advanced search", and "Help" buttons. To the right of the filter box, there are sections for "English for speakers of other languages (ESOL) sub-categories" (No sub-categories), "Related sections" (No related sections), and a "MyIntute" login section with fields for "Email:" and "Password:", a "Login" button, and a "Forgotten password?" link. Below the search filters, there is a section for "Order by: Date | Title" and a search result for "E.L. Easton : materials for teaching and learning" with the URL "http://eleaston.com/". The description of the result states: "E.L. Easton : Materials for Teaching and Learning" is an excellent website for both teachers and students of languages and TEFL. The English online section features materials learning and teaching including: grammar, business English, dictionaries, tests, pronunciation, and English around the world. The differing variants of English are all paid due attention, as is the history of the English language. This is a wide-ranging and fascinating site that also features thematic vocabulary ranges and tests, and thematically arranged texts. The extensive materials for those learning or teaching English are matched by similar but less extensive materials in: Albanian, Arabic, Chinese, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Hindi, Indonesian, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Latvian, Lithuanian, Malay, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Spanish, Swedish, Thai, Turkish, Vietnamese, Welsh, and Yiddish.
